What the Spanish Need.

A group of men were talking over the Spanish anti-American riots yesterday in front of the Bailey block, and the war spirit ran pretty high. As usual with sidewalk statesmen, each knew just what should be done by the United States. There was one suggestion made that "brought down the house." A wag said that what the Spanish needed was something to cool them off and he suggested sending them a cargo of Rainier Beer, and added, "when the Spanish find what good beer the Rainier Beer is, they would not want to fight with the country where it is made." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.
